Here's what clients are saying about
CAM Construction services...

City of Burbank Department of Water & Power's 22-acre campus is currently undergoing the most significant construction transformation in the utility's 97-year history.

“ Quick responses to our needs along with the professionalism shown by CAM Services management and field crews, speaks volumes for your company. ”

John J. Cassidy
Manager – Telecommunications and Facilities

Combined Properties, Inc develops and leases retail shopping centers throughout California and nationally.

“ The construction department at CAM Services has earned our trust by consistently providing professional services and results. Daniela and Jeff respond quickly to service requests and provide detailed feedback to help us make the best decisions for each situation. ”
