

Keeping Up Appearances: 3 Things to Keep Your Property Looking its Best this Summer

Share This Story, Choose Your Platform!

It's officially summertime, and while some are focused on getting their bodies in shape, they may be neglecting their property's maintenance. But there's no reason why your property shouldn't be looking its best during this season, and CAM Property Services is here to help.

From landscaping to pressure washing to trash disposal, our Property Pros will keep your building looking fresh as the weather heats up.

Trash Maintenance

An often-overlooked aspect of property ownership is trash disposal. From trash chutes to dumpsters and waste bins, unclean disposal systems contain harmful bacteria, unpleasant odors, and unsightly pests. Worse yet is a dirty dumpster left unattended in the heat for long stretches. Fortunately, CAM can give your waste disposal system a thorough cleaning, resulting in a fresh, attractive perspective from every angle - keeping it CAM clean all summer long.

Pressure Washing

Over time, dirt, grime, mold, mildew, and other unsightly contaminants accumulate on various surfaces, including sidewalks, driveways, decks and patios. These not only detract from the overall appearance of your property but can also pose safety hazards. CAM uses state-of-the-art high-pressure washing and steam cleaning equipment to effectively remove stubborn stains, restore surfaces to their original condition, and enhance curb appeal. Pressure washing also helps extend the lifespan of outdoor surfaces by eliminating corrosive substances and preventing long-term damage. By entrusting CAM with pressure washing, you can enjoy a cleaner, safer, and more inviting outdoor environment that leaves a lasting, fresh smelling, and positive impression on tenants, visitors and potential buyers.

Landscaping

Spring may be over, but weeds and overgrown vegetation never take a break. Our Landscaping Experts can ensure your property is always in season. From planting colorful flowers and ornamental shrubs to installing sustainable irrigation systems and creating inviting outdoor seating areas, CAM can transform your landscaping into a beautiful and welcoming environment. Additionally, summer's warm weather is the right time to show off your outdoor space, so contact the Property Pros today to calendar your upgrades before the dog days of August are here!
